

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

From 2018-2020, SAFE FJC helped 10,612 children, youth, and families who were impacted by abuse.

Creating stability is key, we provide families with critical financial assistance to help them find a safe place to stay, have food and supplies to live, and fill other emergency needs that our families have.

The SAFE FJC's partner with community agencies and provide funds to support these services in our centers.

ENSURING SAFETY PROTECTING FAMILIES SEEKING JUSTICE

HISTORY

Founded in 1998, the SAFE Family Justice Centers is a non-profit organization governed by a Board of Directors made up of private, business, and law enforcement community leaders.

MISSION

The SAFE Family Justice Centers are committed to providing comprehensive services that help protect families, seek justice, and promote SAFE futures for those who have been affected by domestic violence, child abuse, elder abuse, sexual assault, and human trafficking.

WHERE WE ARE

The SAFE Family Justice Centers provide co-located services throughout Riverside County, California with centers located in Indio, Murrieta, Riverside, and Temecula. Each center is staffed with a diverse team of licensed and certified professionals.

JOIN AN EXCLUSIVE GROUP INVESTING IN HOPE FOR SAFE TOMORROWS

The President's Circle members are confident in their support of the SAFE Family Justice Center's mission to ensure safety, protect families and seek justice for the community's most vulnerable victims experiencing domestic violence, child abuse, elder abuse, sexual assault, and human trafficking. The President's Circle members provide a standard of giving through their generosity, inspiring others to share their gifts, and creating a better tomorrow. Its impact reflects the power of philanthropy and spreading hope with the intention that everyone deserves a SAFE environment in our community.
